Dedicated to our late Iemoto ,
Hiroshi Teshigahara

Sogetsu Ikebana Show and Demonstrations
June 22 and 23, 2002, San Jose, California

Tree a significant part of Mother Nature that we sometimes take for granted. As we look around different kinds of trees, its leaves, flowers, shapes and form arouse different emotions for different people.

Our theme for the show this year is Ikebana with tree materials.

Let's closely observe trees from all angles. Anything you can think of related to a tree or any part you can get from a tree can be used in your design.

Flower arrangement is not only a decorative art, it's a way to explore and express oneself as well. The pleasures derived from this ikebana art form are unlimited.

You are cordially invited to join us for our annual flower show. Let our creativity roll.
